Frequently asked questions about eligibility;

The Travis Spouses Club dependent scholarship program is specifically provided to support our dependent family members in the local military community. We do not award to Active Duty, Reserve, Guard, Veterans, DOD Civil Service, or to the general public.

INSTRUCTIONS

Basis of awards;

Scholarship applications are competitively judged and not all applicants may receive an award. Award amounts are based upon the donations and charitable funds raised by the Travis Spouses Club during the year, as such the number of winners and amounts will vary year over year.

The judges will evaluate all applications on a non-discriminatory basis without regard to race, creed, gender, financial need, color, religion, age, ethnicity, disability, or place of national origin.

Scholarship judging;

The competitive judging of applicants will be done by non-biased individuals. All determinations made by the judges and the Scholarship Committee are considered final and may not be reconsidered.

Judges are instructed to give favorable consideration to strong essay, resume, and the applicant's recommendation letters.

Applicant competitive categories;

Scholarship applicants compete in one of these (3) categories for awards. They are:

- (A) dependent children currently enrolled as a senior in High School
- (B) dependent children that have Graduated High School and/or attended a College
- (C) dependent Spouse.

Use of funds from an award;

Awarded funds are to be used at an accredited United States college, university, technical or trade school institution. Award may be used for tuition, books, or on campus room and board expenses only.

Restriction on award payments;

Award monies are sourced from charitable donations and may not be used for personal expenses even if those expenses are associated with the educational goals. Institutions will place award funds into the student account and mark them as restricted use.

Award winner enrollment and Verification of Enrollment Form responsibilities;

Award winners are required to be enrolled for the same year in the fall school term and have returned a completed Verification of Enrollment Form by Sept 30th. A form is included in this package for use by the institution, however, some schools have their own internal form or return process which is acceptable as long as the required information is present.

Payment of award by the Travis Spouses Club;

Awards will be paid directly to the recipient's school of choice as indicated on the completed Verification of Enrollment Form only when it has been returned by the deadline. Travis Spouses Club will begin sending checks only starting in August.

Please be aware of delays that happen and are due the mail processing and the volume of students enrolling during these peak times. Most if not all institutions are aware of these delays in dealing with scholarship award payments.

Forfeiture of an award by an award winner;

An award winner who has not enrolled in a school or returned the required completed Verification of Enrollment Form by the deadline will automatically forfeit their award. Travis Spouses Club reserves the right to withdraw an award and deem it forfeited if the applicant fails to remain in good standing with the community.

Withdrawal from an enrolled institution;

Notification must be sent to Travis Spouses Club within 10 days of the withdrawal from an institution where enrolled and award funds have been used.

Award return requirement;

Unused or forfeited funds must be returned to the Travis Spouses Club within 30 days.

Medical deferment requests;

Medical requests to defer your award are allowed on a case by case basis. Submit your request in writing to the Travis Spouses Club before the Sept 30th deadline for the Verification of Enrollment process deadline. Approved deferments will require the applicant to reapply during the next application period but the deferred award amount will be added to any additional scholarship award won or not won for that application period.

Documentation requirements;

Scanned or photocopied official records must be full legible copies and easy for a person to determine authenticity of its origin (by the presence of watermarks, security paper indicators, stamp, embossing, or other seal affixed thereon). Do not send the original copy of your diploma or HSE/GED certificate it will not be returned.

Home school transcripts and records from a church, umbrella school, correspondence institution, home school curriculum provider, or parent attesting to course completion are acceptable.

No documents submitted will be returned by Travis Spouses Club. They will all be destroyed

Responsibilities of the applicant;

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure the application is complete, sent, and received before the deadline. The Scholarship Committee is not allowed to assist the applicant in any way for the submission process. Missing or incomplete contents of an application may cause the applicant or the package to be rejected, disqualified, and/or receive a lower weighted consideration during the judging process.

Once an application has been submitted it is considered final, and no further submissions or modification to the application is allowed. This is to ensure that the submission and judging process is fair for all competing applicants. Strong applicants will ensure submitted packages are representative of their desire to receive an award.

Application deadline;

Completed applications must be submitted or postmarked by the published deadline. To ensure integrity in the competitive process there are no exceptions to this deadline and all late applications are ineligible for an award. Publication deadline is found in flyers, media postings, and/or upon our website with the website being the official source and located here:

Travis Spouses Club Scholarship Essay Guide

Each scholarship applicant must submit a typed essay of 350 to 500 words double spaced. Do not use any identifying information in your essay instead use “applicant”, “student”, or a personal pronoun rather than your name. Essays need to be converted to a Word document or PDF file if electronically sent as an attachment. At the top of your essay document be sure to include the topic you have chosen to write about (this does not count towards the total word count allowed or required).

Please choose only one of the following topics for your essay:

1. Write about a cause for which you either currently volunteer or plan to volunteer for in the future. Why would you donate your time and what impact do you or will you want to have for this cause?
2. Write about how your sponsor’s military service has influenced your actions or inspired you. Can you describe a specific experience or event where the sponsor’s service helped you?
3. Write about how the inherent family moves associated with your sponsor’s military service has allowed you to live in diverse places and meet a variety of different people from a wide range of backgrounds. How has this influenced your education or choices?

Below is the guide for after an applicant has won a scholarship award

Travis Spouses Club Verification of Enrollment Guide

This form is for the applicants who have been notified of winning a scholarship award only those applying for a scholarship may disregard its instructions.

PURPOSE: For the Travis Spouses Club to properly payout a scholarship award we will need to verify enrollment with your chosen institution.

It is the award winner's sole responsibility to ensure the completed form is returned to the Travis Spouses Club before September 30th or postmarked by this date. Failure to meet this deadline may cause your award to be forfeited. We understand that there are processing delays especially during peak enrollment periods.

PAYMENTS: The Travis Spouses Club will begin issuing checks to institutions in which the Verification of Enrollment Form has been returned after August 1st. Checks are usually mailed weekly. It is not unheard of for institutions to have 2-4 week delays in crediting a student's account.

INSTRUCTIONS: The institution will need to fill out all sections of the form and affix a signature, seal, or stamp to the form. The form should contain your name and student identification number along with a return address for payments. Some institutions are able to print their own Verification of Enrollment Forms, use of these forms is acceptable in place of the form we provide as long as it contains the required information above.

PAYMENT ADDRESS: The address in which Travis Spouses Club mails an award check must be the official schools address for accepting scholarship payments. No checks will be mailed to personal or noninstitutional addresses whatsoever. We recommend the institution stamp this section with the correct information.

REMINDER: Use of scholarship awards is restricted to tuition, books, and on campus room and board only. Institutions will place restrictions on scholarship funds on our behalf. You will not be able to withdraw or use the funds for anything other than what is authorized. Unused funds will be returned to the Travis Spouses Club at the end of the school year by the institution.
